Akshay Chudasama

Managing Partner
General Corporate

Akshay Chudasama is the Co-managing Partner at Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co. He is based out of the Mumbai office of the Firm.

Akshay is a part of our General Corporate Practice Group, counselling clients on corporate / private equity transactions, with a particular focus on cross-border transactions. Consistently recognised as a “Cross Border M&A Specialist” by Asia Pacific Legal 500, Akshay is particularly noted for his expertise in construction and real estate, IT, telecommunication and media laws.

He has advised on various marquee transactions including one of the largest PE acquisitions of a strategic stake in PRL Developers Private Limited by Warburg Pincus; Blackstone’s acquisition of a stake in the commercial/ office space real estate portfolio of the K Raheja Corp Group, India.

Chambers & Partners Global, 2020 says Akshay impresses clients with the "depth of his knowledge and ability to close transactions swiftly." His skills and expertise draw from a great depth of experience, handling landmark deals in a multitude of industries. He is regularly sought after by a roster of major private equity funds, to whom he offers his expertise in large private equity transactions, both inbound and outbound. Further, Chambers & Partners Asia Pacific 2020 mentions that he is lauded by clients for his "keen commercial acumen and overall understanding of the regulatory framework and prevailing market practices." His client base includes a roster of major private equity funds, to whom he offers his expertise in large private equity transactions, both inbound and outbound.

Chambers & Partners has noted Akshay Chudasama as a “fantastic deal maker – he understands the real estate funds sector and anticipates the issues a foreign investors will face”. They further added in 2019 that he is “highly sought after by both international and domestic clients”. He advises on investment and exits across a wide range of industries and is especially praised for his expertise in the real estate and technology sectors. Akshay has also emerged as a ‘preferred lawyer of choice’ for major multinational corporations operating in a complex legal and regulatory environment like India for soliciting quick and cost effective solutions on vexed legal issues. RSG Consulting Report, 2017 specifically highlighted and noted Akshay’s expertise on negotiations. RSG Report 2019 has also highlighted Akshay as ‘business savvy’, an ‘exceptional communicator’ and recommended for having ‘excellent’ M&A experience. He is particularly noted for his ‘willingness and ability to intervene in the deal when needed’. Akshay has been included in Who’s Who Legal: Thought Leaders – M & A 2019.
