Dispute Resolution

Kanika Goenka is a Partner based out of the firm's Mumbai office and focuses on domestic and international arbitration and complex commercial litigation.

Before joining Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas, Kanika worked for several years in the dispute resolution team at Vashi and Vashi and Bharucha & Partners, Mumbai.

Kanika regularly represents clients in arbitrations, seated in India and outside, conducted under different arbitration rules (SIAC, MCIA, LCIA, etc), and governed by different laws across a wide range of industries. In addition to arbitrations, Kanika also represents clients before Indian courts in arbitration-related litigation, such as challenge to arbitral awards, enforcement and execution of awards, as well as interim relief applications. Kanika has also appeared before various courts in the country in applications for enforcement of foreign judgments, from reciprocating and non-reciprocating territories. Additionally, she has a lot of experience advising Indian clients in transnational litigations before foreign courts (Delaware, Florida, London, Singapore, etc). Kanika also advises clients on the drafting and structuring of transactions from a disputes and enforcement perspective.
